

IRP Weekly Book Summary

Each week you will be required to read a minimum of twenty-five pages from the book you have selected for the IRP. Failure to turn in a weekly summary will result in a lower overall grade when you submit your final IRP at the end of the quarter.

- Title: Title your page with the corresponding page numbers for the book summary.
 - For example: 1-25, 26-50, 51-75, 76-100, 101-125, & 126-150
- Include your name, date, & class period in the top right corner
- Must be typed, printed, and handed in at the beginning of the class period. I will not accept late summaries.
- Must be written in paragraph form. Each paragraph needs to be between five and seven sentences
- Paragraph #1: Summarize the events that occurred
- Paragraph #2: Discuss the characters that are present. What was their role? How has the character changed since the twenty-five pages?
- Paragraph #3: Predict what will happen in the next twenty-five pages.

You will not be allowed to print during class time
