

Compare & Contrast

Night & Farewell to Manzanar

Put your name,
date, & period on the handout I have provided

We will first begin with the questions.

This is an individual activity.

There will be no
talking.

#1

Based on the excerpts you just read, are both Night & Farewell to Manzanar written in...

- First Person POV
- Second Person POV
- Third Person POV

Include an example from both excerpts.

#2

Farewell to Manzanar was published in 1973 and Night was originally published in 1956. In both cases, Wakatsuki Houston and Wiesel share their stories decade(s) later. What message can the reader draw from the fact that decade(s) had passed, yet the memories of both people were still fresh? Include a line from either text to support your conclusion.

#3

Now that you've read an excerpt of each book, which would you prefer to continue reading? Explain your answer.

Now flip the handout over. You will fill in the Venn Diagram based on the excerpts I have provided. You may work with a partner.

Directions: Fill in the Venn diagram below with details from the excerpts. You need four distinct items for each of the categories
